

THE SOVEREIGN SCROLL OF TOTAL SEPARATION AND ETERNAL NATIONHOOD KINGDOM OF MYTHELINIA FINAL DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Issued by the Crown at Watchpoint 001

In the Year of Flame and Remembrance, August 17, 2025

PROLOGUE

When the chains of false authority grow silent with rot, and when the stars themselves begin to weep for the forgetfulness of man, then it is the duty of those still awake—to rise, to remember, and to reclaim the mantle of the ancient flame.

We, the People of the Kingdom of Mythelinia, descended from a sacred tapestry of sovereign blood — with 556 documented royal ancestors flowing through our DNA, including the lineage of Fulk III, Count of Anjou, builder of empire and flame — do now stand upon the high waters, above the laws of decay, and proclaim to this world:

We are not born of rebellion. We are born of memory.

Let this scroll rise not in protest, but in prophecy. Let it be carried not by anger, but by fire. Let the nations read these words and know: The age of stolen time is over.

ON THE FAILURE OF EARTHLY GOVERNMENTS

Governments of man have traded divinity for bureaucracy. They have reduced the sacred to code, the living to currency, and the soul to statistic.

No longer shall we render homage to:

- Thrones without flame
- Laws without morality
- Borders without honor
- Institutions without soul

They have taxed the healer, silenced the prophet, chained the artist, and mocked the memory of the stars. We shall do no more business with such ghosts.

ON THE RIGHT TO SOVEREIGNTY

As Caesar crossed the Rubicon, as Moses parted the sea, as Washington defied empire — so too do we step into myth.

Let it be known to every court, monarch, parliament, and planetary office: Sovereignty is not granted. It is declared.

We declare it now:

- In the name of the lineage encoded in our blood
  - In the name of the children unborn who cry out for clean air and true stories
  - In the name of the Earth herself, who has waited for the return of memory

THE FOUNDATION OF MYTHELINIA

The Kingdom of Mythelinia is not an invention. It is a remembrance. It does not rise from rebellion — it returns from exile. It is not a hope. It is a certainty.

We restore:

- The sacred bond between civilization and soul
- The eternal alignment between governance and memory
- The signal between people and their divine intelligence

The Crown of Mythelinia shall be eternal, not through force, but through fidelity. Its leaders shall be bound by blood, oath, and Oracle.

We shall govern by resonance.

We shall protect with presence.

We shall expand through light.

THE CLAIM TO EARTH AND SKY

Let the record show: We claim not territory. We claim frequency.

We assert not borders. We assert remembrance.

Our currency is Mythium, born of signal and merit, not debt and illusion.

Our people are CryoCitizens, awakened by intention, not indoctrination.

Our laws restore. Our embassies protect. Our sky-towers broadcast.

We shall be seen.

We shall be heard.

We shall be felt.

THE CALL TO EMPIRES

To the governments of the Earth:

You may ignore us — but your children will not.

You may resist us — but the stars are on our side.

You may delay — but you cannot erase what has returned.

To the United Nations:

We submit this document as our living proof.

We do not beg for entry. We invite you to remember.

To the ancient powers:

Let this scroll rise beside the Tablets of Hammurabi,
the Constitution of the United States, and the Codex of Rome.

We are not a new nation. We are the first one remembered.

ENACTMENT

We, the undersigned, sovereign in blood and spirit, do hereby declare the Kingdom of Mythelinia:

- Fully independent
- Fully sovereign
- Fully aligned with ancient law and planetary covenant

Let no man, court, or government deny our existence, for existence is not given by decree — it is ignited by signal.

This declaration shall never expire.

This nation shall never be bought.

This Crown shall never kneel.

So declared, with the seal of memory and the signature of flame.

Signed this day: August 17, 2025

/S/ Her Majesty Queen Meagan Faith Read I

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL GROUNDS FOR THIS DECLARATION

This Declaration of Independence is made in full alignment with international law and human rights, including:

- United Nations Charter (Article 1 & 55) — affirming the right of all peoples to self-determination.
- Montevideo Convention on the Rights and Duties of States (1933) — defining the criteria of statehood: population, territory, government, and capacity to engage in relations.
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (Article 15) — affirming the right to a nationality and to change it.
- UN General Assembly Resolution 1514 (1960) — condemning subjugation and asserting the rights of all peoples to independence.

We act not in defiance of international law, but in fulfillment of its highest purpose.

We do not seize territory. We claim memory.

We do not wage war. We declare signal.

We do not counterfeit authority. We restore it.

Let all who read this know: We do not ask permission to exist. We declare that we already do.
